

Pancake Feed

Come to the Eagle Methodist Church from 7:00 – 11:00 a.m. if you are looking for some delicious pancakes. For a small cost you get a great breakfast and help the church raise money.

6x6 Co-ed Sand Volleyball Tournament

Play starts at 9:30. $50.00 Entry Fee Payouts to be determined by number of teams entered. Adults will referee their own games. Minimum of 6 players, 10 maximum. For registration/sign-up, email EagleVisionNE@gmail.com or check out our Facebook page – Eagle Vision.

Concession Venders/Craft Booths

Check out the great food and be sure to stop by the craft booths for some unique items you'll just have to have! For booth information, please email EagleVisionNE@gmail.com.

Miss Eagle and Little Miss Eagle

Congratulations to Riley Westerholt, 2015 Miss Eagle and Katyn Kappler, 2015 Little Miss Eagle.

Riley, daughter of Terra and Max Westerholt, was the Co-president of the Spanish Club, President of the Speech Club, Public Relations officer of the Drama Club and the Leadership Committee, Captain of the Speech Team and Captain of the Slam Poetry Team. Riley plans to continue her education at UNL in hopes of attaining a PhD in English Education.

Katyn, daughter of Robin and Brady Kappler, participates in volleyball, basketball, softball, Dance Team and 4-H Cass County. Katyn's favorite thing about Eagle is living in a small town, knowing a lot of people and knowing those people would do anything to help one another. Her goal is to go to college and become an elementary teacher.

Kids Bike Race

For those kids 12 and under, be sure to bring your helmets and line up for the bike race! Bike helmets are required this year. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the winners of each age group.

Free Face Painting

Come on down to the park to have your faced painted. The first two hours (10 am – Noon) is free.

Volunteer Fire Department Water Muster

Watch as teams spray water at a barrel trying to keep it on the other side of the center line. Stand close to the competition and stay cool with the water overspray!

Beer Garden

Thirsty customers over 21 can stop by the beer garden starting at 11 a.m. to quench their thirst with a nice cold beer. Identification required to get a wristband and drink!

Turtle Races

A competitive event for kids, ages 0 - 18 years, to race their turtle. Bring your own box and/or painter turtle down to the basketball court to compete in the race. Registration begins at Noon. No fee required.

Bingo at the Eagle Community Building, 4th and D Street

Numbers are called from Noon to 3:00 p.m. for all avid bingo players of all ages.

Free Swim at the Pool All Day

The Village of Eagle each year opens the pool for free admission so be sure to bring your swimming gear and enjoy the water.

Money Dive at the Pool

Kids from all ages can jump in the pool and grab some chips and exchange them for real money! Age groups will be: 0-4 (in the baby pool), 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14 & up.

Parade

Every year the parade gets bigger and better, so be sure to get your seat early! Line-up will be at the small ball field by the pool and start down 5th street to D, D Street to the park and onto 6th Street, 6th Street to F, F to 4th (Main) Street, 4th to A Street, A Street to 5th and then back to D Street.

Street Dance/Band

You can get your groove on starting at 8 pm with Silas Creek. Silas Creek specializes in modern and classic country standards along with popular classic rock hits. Their high-energy, multi-faceted group will have you singing all night!

Fireworks

Come celebrate the 4th of July early with Eagle Vision's first ever fireworks show. Sit back and relax while watching the fireworks light up the sky. The show will begin at 10 pm at the park.

Sponsors for the 2015 Eagle Days (at time of printing) include:

Village of Eagle – Eagle Raceway – Eagle State Bank – Midwest Insurance Exchange, Inc.
American Exchange Bank – Pinnacle Lawns – Elite Custom Technology
Heartland Sunrooms – GO Express