2014 Eagle Days

Eagle Days is an annual community event brought to you by Eagle Vision, Inc. a non-profit organization committed to the citizens of Eagle. The mission of our organization is to promote and encourage growth in the community, focusing on children, family and the elderly. We strive to raise awareness and increase the development of tourism to our great small town. One of our main areas of focus for the future of Eagle is to provide a combined effort with the Village of Eagle to help raise funds for the new Community Building that is greatly needed and will benefit everyone in the Eagle area.

2014 Eagle Vision Officers:

President – Angella Moore, President Elect – Becky Rezabek, Secretary – Brandie Humphrey,
 Treasurer – Cassie Hitz

Board of Directors:

Julie Kreikemeier, Ryan Peery, Nic Hitz, Cliff Schmidt & Ray Young

Many Volunteers are needed to help with Eagle Days, so if you have some spare time and would like to help out, send an email to EagleVisionNE@gmail.com or contact one of the members listed above. We cannot provide Eagle Days without the help of our many sponsors and contributors so be sure to check the list at the park and stop by to thank these great supporting members of our town and surrounding communities!

Pancake Feed

Come to the Eagle Methodist Church from 7:00 – 11:00 a.m. if you are looking for some delicious pancakes. For a small cost you get a great breakfast and help the church raise money.

6x6 Co-ed Sand Volleyball Tournament

Play starts at 9:30. $50.00 Entry Fee Payouts to be determined by number of teams entered. Adults will referee their own games. Minimum of 6 players, 10 maximum. For registration/sign-up, email EagleVisionNE@gmail.com or check out our Facebook page – Eagle Vision.

Car Show

Registration opens at 9:00 for the 4th Annual Eagle Car Show. With several categories for entries, there should be a favorite for everyone. Bring your own or check out the cool rides entered! For entry information, contact Justin Dillon 402-540-4784 or justinwdillon@yahoo.com

Concession Venders/Craft Booths

Check out the great food and be sure to stop by the craft booths for some unique items you'll just have to have! For booth information, please email EagleVisionNE@gmail.com.

Kids Bike Race

For those kids 12 and under, be sure to bring your helmets and line up for the bike race! Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the winners of each age group.

Bingo at the Eagle Community Building, 4th and D Street

Numbers are called from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for all avid bingo players of all ages.

Happy D Klown Magic Show

Come over to the stage at 3:30 so you can be amazed by Happy D Klowns Magic Show. This family friendly show is great for all ages.

Beer Garden

Thirsty customers over 21 can stop by the beer garden starting at 6 p.m. to quench their thirst with a nice cold beer. Identification required to get a wristband and drink!

Volunteer Fire Department Water Muster

Watch as teams spray water at a barrel trying to keep it on the other side of the center line. Stand close to the competition and stay cool with the water overspray!

Free Swim at the Pool All Day

The Village of Eagle each year opens the pool for free admission so be sure to bring your swimming gear and enjoy the water.

Money Dive at the Pool

Kids from all ages can jump in the pool and grab some chips and exchange them for real money! Age groups will be: 0-4 (in the baby pool), 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14 & up.

Miss Eagle and Little Miss Eagle

Congratulations to Liz Schreiber, 2014 Miss Eagle and Shiloh Roth, 2014 Little Miss Eagle. Liz, daughter of Chris and Dan Schreiber, participates in the FFA, Waverly High School Varsity and Marching Band, Soccer, Cross Country, History Club, German Club, FCCLA, 4H, Capital City Cloggers, mission trips with her church, and lifeguards at the Eagle Pool. She volunteers with Habitat for Humanity, City Mission, Kids Against Hunger, Center for People in Need, World Vision and several community food banks. Liz plans to continue her education at Iowa Central Community College studying Animal Science and playing soccer.

Shiloh, daughter of Chad and April Roth, participates in YMCA volleyball, Eagle Rec softball and Lady Vikes hoops basketball. She volunteers at Tabitha and participates in summer camps. Shiloh's favorite thing about Eagle is the kind people. Her goal is to go to college to be a dental assistant.

Parade

Every year the parade gets bigger and better, so be sure to get your seat early! Line-up will be at the small ball field by the pool and start down 5th street to D, D Street to the park and onto 6th Street, 6th Street to F, F to 4th (Main) Street, 4th to A Street, A Street to 5th and then back to D Street.

Bands

You can get your groove on starting at 8:00 p.m. with Silas Creek and then again at 10:00 p.m. with Hometown Connection. Silas Creek specializes in modern and classic country standards along with popular classic rock hits. Their high-energy, multi-faceted group will have you singing all night!

Hometown shows have been compared to watching Chuck Norris skin a pack of hungry wolves. You wanna rock harder than Charlie Sheen on a bender? Yes! Yes, you do! So bring your party boots because you won't be disappointed!
