
EAGLE EVANGEL

Amy's Adagio

I sometimes wish Jesus hadn't said, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21). I'd be more comfortable if he had said, "Where your heart is, there your treasure will be also." But he said what he meant and he meant what he said. Our attitudes toward money and the priority we place on our possessions are matters of the heart; they go to the core of our identity. Because of the soul-level importance of our relationship with money, we need more than information. We need wisdom.

I know what you're thinking: "Great, it's the time of year where we're going to start hearing about money and giving to the church!" Well, you're right - our Stewardship Campaign is set to begin on September 18th and you will hear me talking about giving money to the church. But a stewardship campaign is so much more than that.

Our stewardship is not just giving money to the church; it's about how we use ALL of the blessings God gives to us. Our spiritual health is reflected in our giving; the stewardship of our money, our time and our talents.

In John Wesley's sermon called "The Use of Money," he gave three pieces of advice: Earn all you can: Save all you can: Give all you can. Wesley's simple rules for money will be the tool we use to examine our stewardship and how we can be better stewards of all of our resources.

In conjunction with our stewardship campaign, Mary Gerteisen will be teaching another session of Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University. These classes will be held at Havelock UMC. Classes will begin on Wednesday, September 21st at 7:00 p.m. and will last for 10 weeks. If handling your finances is something you're concerned about or struggle with, this class can help you take control of your money and will teach you new ways and habits. Please contact instructor Mary Gerteisen at (402) 429-6848 with any questions or for more information.

I hope to see you in worship as we learn Wesley's rules of Earn, Save, Give.

In his love,

Amy

Many thanks to everyone who has helped to clean and repair the little white house behind the food bank! We are preparing the house to be used for church & community meetings as well as serve as the pastor's office. Once Amy's office has been relocated, we will be expanding the food bank to better meet the needs of those in the Eagle community and beyond who utilize it.

May God continue to bless our efforts at Eagle UMC as we serve Him.

Please have submissions for the August newsletter to Pastor Amy by Sunday, September 18th. Thanks!
