

For Immediate Release

For more information, contact Karen Berghauser at Omahawito@gmail.com or (402) 651-5807

This One's For the Girls: Upcoming Outdoor Event for Women

You're invited to the 14th Annual Omaha Women in the Outdoors Workshop

Women interested in experiencing a relaxing, fun-filled day in the outdoors and meeting new friends are invited to an NWTF Women in the Outdoors event August 17 at Platte River State Park.

Women age 14 and up are encouraged to attend. Hands-on instruction will be provided by friendly experts trained to work with beginners and participants of all skill levels.

The event, which begins at 7:30 am, will include the following activities:

- Bird Watching
- Archery
- Kayaking
- Hiking
- Dutch oven cooking
- Try Scuba
- Land Navigation
- Sausage Making

Participation is just $75, which includes a 1-year membership in Women in the Outdoors and subscription to Turkey Country. Additional fees may apply for some classes and optional overnight.

Advance registration is required. For more information, please contact Karen Berghauser at Omahawito@gmail.com or (402) 651-5807. Also find us at <https://sites.google.com/site/omahawito/> to access the registration form or on Facebook.

Since its inception in 1998, the NWTF Women in the Outdoors program has introduced women throughout North America to outdoor enjoyment.

For more information about the Women in the Outdoors program, please call (800) THE-NWTF or visit www.womenintheoutdoors.org.

